

The Financial Express (Print Edition)

September 11, 2014

IPE Global acquires Triple Line Consulting

Indian-origin development consultancy firm IPE Global has acquired Triple Line Consulting in a move that would help the former expand its footprint to over 104 countries globally with offices across Africa, Asia and Europe. Triple Line Consulting's clientele includes top global development agencies like World Bank, Bill and Melinda Gates Foundation, European Commission and Korean Development Agency. The deal price has not been disclosed by IPE Global.